

Rana Imran Shafi

Additional District & Sessions Judge

Presently Senior Instructor, PJA

Introduction:

He got his LL.B degree from University of the Punjab and thereafter completed his LL.M degree from the NCBA&E., Lahore. He started his career as civil judge in year 2002. He was promoted as senior civil judge in year 2015, where he worked in judicial as well as administrative capacity for about ten months. During this period, he also participated in the Training of Trainers (TOT) program conducted by Dr. Livingston Armytage, Director Center of Judicial Studies Sydney Australia, at PJA Lahore. He then was promoted to the rank of Additional District & Sessions Judge in Year, 2016. He served on this position at session's court, Lahore for about 5 months when his services were placed at the disposal of the Punjab Judicial Academy, Lahore. Presently he is serving as Senior Instructor Punjab Judicial Academy.